High Occupancy, Expansion Of X-Ray, Dispensary Facilities Are New Problems At Hospital

High occupancy and the ever-increasing need for expansion of x-ray and dispensary facilities at the Warner Hospital are presenting the board of directors with serious problems.

At their regular March meeting Thursday evening, the directors learned that on three days in March the hospital capacity of 74 adults had to be expanded to 75, 78 and 83 adults and the normal nursery capacity of 20 had to be stretched to 21, 23 and 25.

Despite its being a short month, February witnessed 317 admissions and the average daily census was 70. Birth totaled 76.

The hospital income was $25,814.79 in February while expenditures were $30,024.96. Earned income was $27,358.90 including state appropriation of $894.28 while costs for the month were $28,722.42 of which $2,096.57 was free work which threw the operation for the month into a loss of $1,363.52.

Purchase New Beds
Walter B. Dillon, hospital administrator, told the directors that steel in the new wing under construction has been erected and masonry work is about ready to start. He said the contractor and architect expect completion by July 15 due to the delay encountered in securing delivery of steel.

The directors authorized purchase of new Hlow beds for the new wing. This bed can be raised to hospital height of 36 inches and lowered, when the patient is not being treated, to 17 inches, thus reducing hazard to patients and the need of assistance in getting in and out of bed. Additional furnishings were authorized in the expectancy that delivery will require 90 to 120 days.

Need New Facilities
There were indications at the meeting that the original program of building the second wing for patient occupancy and then expanding x-ray and dispensary facilities may require amendment.

According to advice of the medical staff, the need of additional x-ray facilities and another dispensary may not be able to be deferred, and the hospital executive committee and new building committee were instructed to study the problem.

The Significance of Good Friday

By DR. JOHN ABERLY
Former President
Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary

By RT. REV. MSGR. PATRICK F. MCGEE
Pastor, Annunciation Church
McSherrystown, Pa.

GOOD FRIDAY is recognized the world over as one of the greatest days in history. It may, even must, be profitable to have our attention directed to what makes it so significant.

It shows us so plainly that he who runs may read the depth of man's guilt. Even disciples, who ran away, who denied, and even betrayed, the Savior, testify to it. But above all, the fact that men with their own ambitions, prejudices and enmities judged the only Perfect Man who ever trod this earth as worthy of death and preferred a murderer in His stead—is this not the limit to the guilt of man? Nor let it be overlooked that there is deep meaning in the spiritual song that asks, "Were you there when they crucified the Lord?"

But even more plainly Good Friday declares the length, breadth and height of the love that will not let us go—the love of the Good Shepherd who gave His life for the sheep. On the cross infinite love paid the price of our redemption. All this is finished. This is its deepest significance.

But Good Friday also emphasizes an essential work for us to do. Jesus Himself says "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men to myself." This He has been doing through the ages and never more than at present. How frequent is the call heard even from non-Christian nations. Give us Christ not your civilization! The Church in her hymns has given expression to the same longing.

"Love so amazing, so divine Demands my soul, my life, my all."
May this be the deep significance of Good Friday to all of us!

A FEW days before Good Friday, Jesus said to His disciples, "Behold we go up to Jerusalem and all things will be accomplished which were spoken of concerning the Son of Man. For He will be mocked, and scourged and spit upon. And they will put Him to death, but after three days He shall rise again."

The Master did not run away although He foresaw all that would happen to Him. He came on earth to redeem fallen man and to save him from his sins. He did not come to live but to die for it is in His dying that we are saved.

Today is not a holiday for us to be filled with earthly thoughts but it is a day for all to stop and think and realize the part that all have had in that Crucifixion. In these days when man, abusing the greatest gift God could give him, his free will, is measuring so many things in earthly values and is losing sight of the one thing that is necessary, namely his own sanctification and the salvation of his immortal soul, it is well for us to stop and meditate. Let us never underestimate the value of the soul of every one of us when the Son of God would leave His Eternal Kingdom and become one of us to suffer and to die for us. On this Good Friday, if in all sincerity we would look at one crucifix or meditate on Christ's sufferings for us, it will make us realize what a terrible thing sin is and how much need we have for real sorrow for sin and how necessary is repentance.

Our Easter joy will be great if in following the Master up the steep hill of Calvary we see our own transgressions making that cross heavier, for if we have part with Him in His sufferings we shall also have part with Him in His Resurrection.

Thousands Gather Today In Jerusalem For Pilgrimage

By WILTON WYNN

JERUSALEM, Jordan State (AP)—Thousands of persons gathered today in the Old City of Jerusalem to retrace the Way of the Cross in the annual Good Friday pilgrimage.

The winding route of the massive procession follows the path from the place of Christ's trial to his tomb. It was another major event in the pre-Easter observance which began Palm Sunday. Casting ominous overtones over the celebration were the Israeli-Arab tensions starkly represented by the division of this old holy city.

Guns along the frontier dividing the city between Israel and Jordan were silenced. But some Holy Week observances were curtailed, and residents of Arab Jerusalem complained that war jitters had kept visitors away. Hotel facilities were booked solid from yesterday through Easter Sunday in the Old City but the extra accommodations required in past years were not needed this Easter season.

The chief Easter sites are on the Arab side of the line dividing Jerusalem, but a ceremony com-

FUND DRIVE FOR CARE CENTER IS "OVER THE TOP"

Adams Countians have donated $1,486.21 for furniture for the Adams County Day Care Training Center, the Gettysburg Soroptimist Club announced today. Goal of the drive had been $1,000.

Miss Dorothy E. Foth, chairman of the Day Care Training Center Furniture Fund campaign for the Soroptimists expressed her appreciation of the county board of school directors to "the Soroptimist Club for conducting the drive and to all who donated." It was pointed out that while the state provides funds toward the Day Care Center and the school boards pay for their students attending the center, there are as yet no provisions in the law which permit the expenditure of public funds for furniture. As a result the public drive had to be conducted to furnish the new quarters in the former High St. School building, E. High St., into which the Day Care Training Center recently moved.

Gifts By Communities
The report of Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, who served as treasurer for the drive shows that coin boxes placed throughout the county brought in $124.26. Receipts by towns were listed as follows: Gettysburg, $907.83; Gettysburg R. D., $329.02; Littlestown, $139.90; Biglerville, $39; New Oxford, $15.03; Fairfield $15; Orrtanna, $10; Arendtsville, $8; Abbottstown, $6.95; Seven Stars, $5.38; East Berlin, $5.20; Greencourt, $2.68; and Hunterstown, $2.22.

Among donors to the drive this week have been Klinefelter Electric Service, Biglerville; Kappa Delta Epsilon sorority, Gettysburg College, and Littlestown Rotary Club. Because the amount received will be needed entirely for furniture, additional contributions may be made to Mrs. Buehler at the Gettysburg National Bank for work and play materials also needed at the center.

TWO INJURED IN SPECTACULAR TANKER BLAST

BAYTOWN, Tex. (AP)—A spectacular explosion last night blasted a gaping hole in an oil tanker taking on kerosene at a dock. Orange flames roared 300 feet into the sky.

Two crewmen were sent to the hospital. Most of the ship's 42-man crew were on shore leave.

The explosion of the 10,000-ton tanker Esso Patterson rocked this oil and chemical city on the industrially-lined Houston ship canal. It was felt in suburban Houston 25 miles away.

Near Panic
The flames were extinguished in an hour, but in the meantime there was near panic here. Residents vividly remembered the ship explosion in nearby Texas City that killed at least 510 people in 1947.

The Esso Patterson was at a dock of the huge Humble Refinery. The blast ripped a hole 12 feet wide and 30 feet deep, extending from the water line to the deck, on the starboard side. Humble officials declined to estimate the loss but a crew member said the damage to the tanker was "heavy" with the ship's plates torn and bent.

Cause Unknown
The injured crewmen were Chief Mate Howard McCartney, 31, Lowell, Mass., and Seaman Jack I. Motro, 48, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Both jumped from the blazing ship to the dock 30 feet below. McCartney suffered a compound fracture of the left leg. Motro complained of severe abdominal pains.

The cause of the blast was undetermined.

A supertanker, the 20,000-ton Esso Florence, had pulled in immediately behind the Esso Patterson. It and the 10,000-ton Esso Linden, also tied up near the Patterson, were pulled by tugs out of the danger area.

September Crash Brings Damage Suit

An action in trespass has been started in Adams County court by Elizabeth K. Hilly, 126 West St., against James Harry McIntyre, Detroit, Mich., as a result of an auto accident September 1, 1955, on the Lincoln Highway six miles east of here.

According to the complaint in the damage action, filed with the prothonotary by the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope, the Hilly car was headed east and halted to await the passage of west-bound traffic before making a left turn. McIntyre's vehicle, also headed east, struck the rear of the Hilly car.

The Hilly sedan was demolished, according to the complaint. The driver suffered extensive bruises about the face and her eye glasses and a watch were broken.

The plaintiff is seeking damages for the loss of her car, medical and hospital treatment, loss caused by the breaking of her glasses and watch, loss of wages during her recovery from the injuries, loss of use of her auto, and pain and suffering.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Kelley in the Westminster Catholic Church. The couple was attended by Rita Sneeringer, a sister of the bridegroom, and Paxton Redding, a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Sneeringer is employed at the Jones uniform factory in Littlestown.

Today's Talk

LOST TIME
Time is something that if lost is gone forever. People think they save it by going faster in their cars, or by working far beyond their immediate strength, and so die long before they should.

Nature times all her wonders. She grows noiselessly, but surely. There is no hurry in the growth of a tree. The California redwoods take centuries to grow, perhaps to shame man who cheats himself out of growth and usefulness in so many cases. The flower buds, blooms and dies in a short space of time, but its fragrance and memory live on!

Horace Mann once wrote: "Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered, for they are gone forever." Time cannot even be "made up," as many suppose, "or second by second it silently steps on — and is gone!"

Time is the most precious thing that may be ours. It is ours, if we use it profitably and usefully. Never should it be wasted. It is only lost when used to no good purpose. The last words of Cecil Rhodes, the English "Empire Builder," were these: "So much to do, so little time." That is the feeling of so many of us. Time has wings, and it is ever "on the wing!"

Time is the most valuable product in existence — more valuable, and paying a bigger dividend, than anything listed on the Stock Exchange. It has always existed to be used, and to be used at once. The lamented Walt Mason had this to say: "Every hour that's gone's a dead one, and another comes and goes; in the graveyard of the ages hours will find their last repose; and the hour that's come and vanished never can be used again; you may long to live it over, but the longing is in vain."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "To Travel Hopefully."

GOOD FRIDAY
With two grim thieves He marched along.
With them He went to die.
He who had never done a wrong,
Condemned, not knowing why.

Even the sun on that dark day
Its face concealed from men,
And no one passing on the way
Guessed what was happening then.

Those soldiers, dying for His robe,
Had called the man absurd
Had they been told, around the globe
His last words would be heard.

Though torn upon the cross He stayed
That long Good Friday through,
"Forgive them, Father," so He prayed,
"They know not what they do."

Story Of Easter: Mary, Lost Her Son

("For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son . . ." Someone else also lost a son. This, seventh of an Easter series, is about that person.)

By GEORGE CORNELL
The Associated Press

He said He had to do it — He said it was necessary — He said He had to go the last, terrible mile — He said He had to die as a sign to the whole world — but He was her son!

And He was dead.
And Mary's Heart was broken. Whatever the great cause He served, whatever the reason and purpose of His death, whatever the lesson He left to mankind, He was gone, and Mary had lost her son. To her, that was the one, awful reality.

What a price to pay, oh Lord, for having such a son. What a bitter lot to accept, what a loss to endure! A mother is not made to be heroic about her son's death.

Watched Slow Death
In Jesus' final hours, Mary had stood beneath the cross with a cluster of His women followers, watching her son slowly die, her own flesh and blood writhing in pain, her own boy, slowly, cruelly, dying.

Near the end, He had turned to her, in a kind of regretful farewell, as if to say He realized His role had been difficult for her: "Behold, thy son!" He had brought her to this, He was saying, she had to take it.

Then His pain-fraught eyes had shifted to John, the only one of His apostles who had braved the hazard of appearing at the scene, and said: "Behold, thy mother!" Strange how He always linked non-kinsmen in one family.

So now, it was over, and John, in whose care her son had left her, was taking her back to the city, trying to console her, this tragic, broken widow, her husband dead some years, and now her son dead, crucified.

Dies A Thousand Deaths
A man's death is just death to him, but it's a thousand deaths to his mother.

Being the mother of Jesus had been a trying responsibility — thrilling, yet at times bewildering — a joy, but also full of distress. As a bride-to-be, how perplexed — but readily — she had accepted her part.

Overcome with wonder at word her child would be of God, she had gone to the hill country to stay a while with an elderly cousin, Elizabeth, who reassured her, "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."

How ecstatic Mary had been that God had picked her, a lowly peasant girl, as his handmaiden. It staggers the pretensions of the mighty, she had said, "My soul doth magnify the Lord . . . All generations shall call me blessed."

Recalls Hopes, Dreams
She remembered all the secret hopes and dreams that pounded in her chest that day in the Bethlehem stable.

Then the trouble had begun — the flight to Egypt from King Herod's mad vengeance, and after his death, their return to Nazareth. There, all went well — for a while. The boy grew in health and vigor, quick-minded, alert, schooled in the synagogue, learning carpentry in Joseph's shop.

Jad Scolded Once
The first shock came on a trip to Jerusalem for Passover. On the way home with relatives, the boy was missed. It took three days to find Him — back at the temple.

HIS MOTHER, MARY
A personality study by Guy Rowe.

talking with learned doctors and scholars.

Mary had scolded Him, "Son, why hast Thou dealt thus with us? Thy father and I have sought Thee, sorrowing. But the boy had an odd streak of independence: "Why seek me? Know ye not I must be about my Father's business?"

Baffled, the parents hustled Him home. Through His youthful years, they kept careful supervision over Him. But He was different, somehow. He found favor with people — everyone liked Him — and yet . . .

Then when He was about 30, He had abandoned His tools, and gone into the desert seeking that prophet — "the Baptist." Ever afterward He was not the same — He seemed absorbed with some unique missionary urge.

Upsets At Ideas
It had been upsetting when He stayed alone in the desert for 40 days without food, and when He returned, neighbors and friends began to talk about His peculiar behavior — his non-conformist ideas.

Once, a whole group of them had gone to stop Him, saying the young carpenter was beside Himself with wild talk about "all sins shall be forgiven the sons of men." But He ignored them, saying: "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and among his own kin and in his own house."

Then, once as He was speaking at the synagogue, His mother and brothers had gone to call Him out, but He wouldn't be bothered, insisting on that notion of His that His listeners were His real family.

"Whoever shall do the will of God," He had said, "the same is My brother and My sister and My mother."

Mary felt left out at times, and hurt. A quiet, self-effacing, pious woman, she was not inclined to her son's habit of pricking custom. But she bore it all, loving Him, believing in Him.

He mingled with all sorts of questionable people — outcasts, sinners, tax-grabbing publicans, beggars, bell-necked lepers, blind men and harlots, with no thought of what people would say, or think. The sick need the physician, He said, not the well.

She could only have faith in Him — that all would turn out for the best. Once, at a wedding in Cana, she had worriedly whispered to Him that the hosts had no wine.

Gave Her Son
Don't fret, He had said, it's not important. So she had just left it to Him, telling the servants, "Whatever He saith unto you, do it!" She was always sure He could handle it. And He did. The water-pots brimmed with wine.

As He died, all the tender, protective love of motherhood swelled helplessly in Mary.
She felt she could not stand it, this awful end, this crushing, final blow. But she did. No doubt, like most mothers, she wished she could have taken His place there on the cross. But she couldn't.

She had to yield to her own cross

Mt. St. Mary's Will Open Baseball Campaign At Hampden-Sydney April 6

Mount St. Mary's will open its baseball season on April 6 against the Hampden-Sydney Tigers in Virginia. The Mountaineers will play 16 Mason-Dixon league games plus contests against Georgetown and Shippensburg.

The unseasonable spring weather has hampered the Mountaineers to the extent that Coach Jim Phelan will spend the first week of the season shaking down his crew. Phelan has a veteran staff returning headed by George Proferes, an effective lefthander, who last year was the club's best hurler. Back also are veterans Jim O'Haren, another leftie, Joe Moroney, Joe Smith and Dick McCarron.

Charlie Costenbader, No. 2 receiver last season, will have first call behind the bat. Costenbader hit .333 last year but saw only limited action. At the moment Phelan has no other catching prospects and may be forced to draft Captain Frank Smith, regular second sacker, into relief duty for Costenbader.

Smith wound up last season with a .297 batting average and is a polished performer at the keystone sack.

Infield Prospects

Denny Shuck, who played brilliantly at shortstop last season as a freshman, seems to have the job nailed down again. Shuck hit a respectable .283 and, despite his size, has real good power at the plate. Tom Galvin, who divided his time between third and first and clubbed the ball at a .317 pace, has not decided whether to play this season. The loss of Galvin would be a big blow at Mountaineer prospects.

Outfielder veterans returning are Chub Walsh, a .385 hitter, Bill Ross at .310, as well as Jack Sullivan. George Quade is back to bolster the infield and Phelan expects him to hit better this season.

Freshman Candidates

Freshmen expected to strengthen this year's club are Jack Mattimore, Toledo, Ohio, a smooth hitting shortstop, and Bill Hessler, Washington, D. C., who is also a slick infielder. At this point Phelan has no good line on the hitting potential of Hessler and Mattimore, but if they help at the plate, the infield should be stronger than last year. Joe Starke, Washington, D. C., a big right-hander, is highly touted as a pitching prospect and is also a fine outfielder who hits the ball with authority. Off action thus far Starke seems certain to start in centerfield when he is not on the rubber.

The starting lineup should look something like this: Proferes, Starke, Smith, Moroney, O'Haren, pitching; Costenbader, catching; Sullivan or Bill Ross, first base; Smith, second; Shuck, short; Quade, third; Walsh and Starke in the outfield. If Galvin plays first Ross and Sullivan will move back to the outfield.

The schedule follows:

April 6, Hampden-Sydney, away; 7, Randolph-Macon, away; 9, American University, home; 12, Georgetown, away; 13, Towson, away; 16, Washington College (2), home; 20, Western Maryland, away; 21, Catholic University, home; 23, Shippensburg, away; 25, Baltimore University, home; 28, Western Maryland, home; May 1, Towson, home; 2, American University, away; 5, Georgetown, home; 8, Loyola, away; 11, Baltimore, away; 12, Shippensburg, home; 14, Catholic University, away.

FORT WAYNE AND WARRIORS WILL PLAY FOR TITLE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Because Paul Arizin had a hot night and Bob Pettit a poor one, the Philadelphia Warriors and Fort Wayne Pistons will meet for the National Basketball Assn. championship.

The first game of the best-of-seven series will be played in Philadelphia tomorrow afternoon. It will be televised nationally.

Last night, with Arizin getting 35 points, the Warriors defeated the defending champion Syracuse Nats 109-104 to win their semifinal series, three games to two in the Eastern Division playoff. Adolph Schay had 28 for the Nats. And on the strength of a 35-29 last quarter rally, Fort Wayne eliminated the St. Louis Hawks 102-97 in the Western Division. It was a fine comeback by the Pistons, who dropped the first two games, then swept the next three. The Hawks' Pettit, the circuit's leading scorer in the regular season, hit only 3 of 18 field goal attempts and wound up with a paltry 16 points. George Yardley and Larry Foust of Fort Wayne, and Jack Coleman of St. Louis each scored 20 points.

The Pittsburgh Hornets are off on the right foot in their bid to successfully defend their Calder Cup championship, while the Providence Reds, American Hockey League pennant-winners, are having a rough time with the Buffalo Bisons.

The Hornets, runnerup during the regular campaign, downed the Cleveland Barons 3-1 last night in the first game of their best-of-five semifinal series.

But third-place Buffalo tripped Providence 5-1 to square their best-of-five semifinal set at one game apiece.

Goalie Gil Mayer, who came up with 27 saves, and the Hornets' defensemen were too tough for the Barons, who managed only Jackie Gordon's goal early in the second period. That tied the score 1-1.

Midway through the same session, with Cleveland a man short, Frank Mather slashed a 20-footer into the goal for Pittsburgh. Willie Marshall added an insurance marker for the Hornets at 12:31 of the third period.

Buffalo's high powered attack was paced by Kenny Wharram with two goals. Sam Bettio, their left winger, sent to a hospital with a broken jaw after being hit by a stick. He also lost four teeth and was cut on the lip.

CHOPS 13 SEC. OFF SWIM MARK

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—What do you have to do to lower the world's long-course 1,500-meter swimming record by 13.1 seconds? "You have to swim like hell," says George Breen of Cortland (N.Y.) State Teachers College, and he should know.

The 20-year-old swimming sensation from Buffalo, N. Y., did it with a spectacular 18:05.9 last night as he got the three-day NCAA Swimming Championships going.

Breen beat the 18:19 recorded by Hiroshiro Furuhashi of Japan at Los Angeles nearly seven years ago. Yale's Bob Kiputh, famed Olympic coach, said this establishes the modest youngster as the world's greatest long-distance swimmer today.

Others said Breen's time was the equivalent of a runner doing a 4-minute mile in track.

Breen won in a breeze. Behind him were Peter Duncan of Oklahoma, Tetsuo Okamoto of Texas A&M, John Phair and Joe Robinson of Yale and John O'Reilly of Michigan.

FAVOR COSTA IN FIGHT TONIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP)—Francis' Cherif Hamia hopes to benefit from stablemate Charley Humez's mistakes and upset 2-1 favored Carmelo (Chubby) Costa in a television 10-rounder between featherweight contenders tonight at Madison Square Garden.

The baby-faced, 25-year-old Parisian watched Humez, the European middleweight champion, take two rounds to warm up against Tiger Jones in the Garden last Friday night. The slow get-away cost the rallying Humez the split decision by one point.

"I will be out punching from the opening bell," vowed Hamia. "I realize here the first round counts as much as the last in the scoring."

Unbeaten in his last nine, Hamia has a 23-1 record. Catching and tagging Costa solidly is a major task. The fleet-footed, 21-year-old Brooklynite, skips around on nimble legs, moving in and out on his opponent.

Costa, the No. 3 contender, has a 29-24 record. NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p.m., EST.

Hit Hot Pace At Wilmington, N.C.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—The $12,500 Azalea Open golf tournament, which headed into its second round today again has demonstrated how fiercely competitive professional golf has become.

Gene Littler, the 25-year-old Palm Springs, Calif., professional, a former National Amateur champion, "ate up" the Cape Fear Country club course with a six-under-par 66 yesterday. But he was only one of 41 players who mastered regulation figures and held only a one-stroke lead over three rivals, with eight others only two back of the leader.

Littler shot near flawless golf—he had to—to keep a shot ahead of another former National Amateur, Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa.; George Bayer, the power hitter from Cincinnati, and Stan Leonard of Lechute, Canada.

Doug Ford, PGA champion from Mahopac, N.Y., blazed out in 31, but slumped to 37 coming in to drop into the eight-man 68 bracket which also included Gardner Dickinson Jr., Panama City, Fla., pro, who last Sunday won his first "big one" at Miami Beach.

PT. MYERS, Fla. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates broke camp today and if his improvement continues he'll probably be released from the hospital where he has been confined since being beamed by Don Newcombe of the Brooklyn Dodgers Tuesday.

Even if Jones does get out today, physicians have told him it will be several more days before he can get in uniform and begin working out.

FT. MYERS, Fla. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates broke camp today and looked forward to a continuation of their spring exhibition series with the American League's Kansas City Athletics.

The Pirates and A's took up tomorrow at Birmingham, Ala., in the first of 13 meetings the clubs will engage in during the northward trek. They have met three times in Florida and the Pirates, who now have an 11-9 record, have won two of the games.

BRAVES BREAK CAMP; CONLEY IS IMPROVING

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves broke spring training camp today and prepared for the long trip north armed with the happy news that ace hurler Gene Conley's ailing shoulder has shown "definite improvement."

"Now it looks like merely a matter of time until Conley can pitch again," said General Manager John Quinn.

Conley was confident as he said, "They've finally pinpointed the trouble . . . I'll probably be lobbing the ball in four or five days."

Same Old Injury

The word of "improvement" came from Dr. Michael Di Cosola, orthopedic surgeon, yesterday after a second examination of the lanky right-hander.

Conley came down with shoulder trouble last week. Dr. Di Cosola said he was suffering "chronic tendonitis," an inflammation of a tendon deep in his right shoulder. It was the same injury that put the 6-8 hurler out of action in August last season after he had run up an 11-7 record.

Recurrence of the injury was a blow to the Braves, who feared it might cost them Conley's services for the season—a season in which they counted on him for 15 or 20 victories.

"Better Off Here"

"As I said last summer and during the winter, there's one thing back there in the shoulder holding me back. I think they've found it now and I'm greatly encouraged. I'm still looking forward to a great season," Conley added.

The 25-year-old hurler will remain at Bradenton, where the Braves trained, for two weeks and undergo therapy of heat, massage and exercise.

"He could go along with the club," the physician said, "but I want him to get these treatments and he is better off to take them here. He shouldn't throw for at least a week."

The bell rings, and its message is a clarion call across the countryside. Beneath it, white lilies touched by the sunlight look upward toward a cloudless sky.

This is Easter... the golden day... the day of promise and joy. This is the time when God proffers the great gift of eternal life... when he shows, in the lesson of the Tomb... that there is no death.

There is no more joyous occasion in the Church than Easter. Against the setting of Spring, it touches the land with beauty, bringing a new upsurge of hope, thrilling the young, comforting the old. Easter is the time to rededicate your faith... to listen again to a wonderful promise... to receive again a glorious gift. Start attending Church regularly by beginning at Easter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday School Lesson

By H. R. and M. C. Gold

THE MEANING OF THE RESURRECTION

Luke 24:28-34; 44-53

Key Verse: Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ, I Corinthians 15:57.

The Easter story cannot be examined like any ordinary historical event because of the radiance that surrounds it—a glowing wonder that develops into firm conviction. Christ was risen, for the tomb was empty and the stone rolled away when the women arrived at dawn on the first Easter.

What did it mean then, and now? After the sobering and sorrowful emotions of the preceding days, Jesus' disciples seemed to be re-created and reactivated. No one can ever describe adequately the mystery of the Resurrection. One writer explains it in this way: "Simply the disciples knew, with that ineffable, inner certainty which only the issues of life can prove, that they were in touch again with the vast soul of Jesus, dominant over death. To them henceforth the whole aspect of the world was forever different. And they were different. Men who had been cowed and despondent suddenly became possessed of power. Whatever else is veiled in mystery, that emerges clear as day."

The body of the resurrected Lord was a glorified, transcendent body and not mortal although clearly visible. Jesus' many appearances to His disciples and others between the time of the Resurrection and the Ascension convinced even the non-believers of the inescapable fact of His victory over death. The disciples knew with a new discernment "that Jesus in a new way, yet with His unmistakable spirit clothed in recognizable form, not only showed himself to them alive but gave them the commission of that gospel of God's undefeated love for which he had dared to die!"

Not only this new conviction but its consequences proved this miracle of the living Saviour to be real. As a result the disciples were no longer just "learners"; they were able and convincing "witnesses." "Because of Easter day, their own inner selves were recreated. Their inhibitions of fear dropped off like broken chains. They became not only men of faith, but builders of a new fellowship of faith."

Four Accounts Vary

The different accounts of the Resurrection found in the four Gospels vary but are not contradictory. Each evangelist writes about the incidents which seem most significant to him in interpreting the great event to those for whom he is writing. Luke is the only one who tells of the walk to Emmaus and the illuminating conversation between Jesus and His two companions who do not recognize Him until He breaks bread with them at supper. Later they returned to Jerusalem and "they found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them."

Another part of the lesson narrative includes another appearance, probably His last when "he opened their minds to the scriptures," recounted briefly the passion history, and concluded with these admonitions and instructions: "And that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high." Then, according to the account, He bled them and "parted from them." He had left them with a vision of the extension of the Church under the guidance of the Spirit.

But there was no feeling of loss for Jesus is a living presence whose power will continue with all those who truly believe in Him. The living Christ makes it possible for His followers to share in the power of His resurrection. Their chief responsibility is to spread the Easter news of life and salvation to the peoples of all nations.

DONNELLY SAYS TWO NOMINEES ASSURED OF COURT SEATS

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—Dep. Atty. Gen. Joseph L. Donnelly said today the winner of the Republican nomination for the State Supreme Court in the April 24 primary is assured automatic election to the high bench.

The GOP candidates are Judge Benjamin R. Jones of Luzerne County who has organization support, and Judge Henry X. O'Brien of Allegheny County, running as an independent.

A little-known Constitution provision, Donnelly explained, also assures automatic election next Nov. 6 of Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen, unopposed for the Democratic nomination for the Supreme Court.

Two Vacancies
Donnelly said the State Elections Bureau will certify next week that two vacancies on the Supreme Court will be filled at the November election.

They were created by the death in February of Justice Allen M. Stearns and the expiration next January of the term of Chief Justice Horace Stern.

The certification will bring into operation a constitutional provision that provides the basis of the guaranteed election of a Republican and Democrat to the high bench in November, he added.

Horst Withholds Decision
"In effect," Donnelly told a newsman, "the Constitution says a voter cannot ballot for more than one judge of the Supreme Court in an election where two vacancies are to be filled."

The certification will be the result of Donnelly's study of a complex maze of election laws and court decisions. The certification is binding on the Elections Bureau unless the question reaches the courts.

Republican State Chairman Miles Horst said he has consulted with constitutional lawyers on the subject but without any decision being reached yet.

The GOP position will be important if it embarks on a move to bring about the ballot listing of another candidate from each party on the ticket.

The groundwork for such a "double-or-nothing" move would have to be laid on the basis of a court appeal of the Elections Bureau certification.

If Republicans won in such a "double-or-nothing" strategy, they would retain control of the Supreme Court by a 5-2 margin. If they lost, Democrats would dominate that bench, 4-3.

Donnelly said a 1953 revision of the election law leaves no doubt that two judges—a Republican and a Democrat—must be elected next November.

Removes Doubt
That law, he explained, was specifically intended to remove doubt in the election law created by a Supreme Court decision in 1951.

At that time, the high court threw out a demand by Judge Michael J. Eagen of Lackawanna County that he should have been certified as elected to the Supreme Court in 1950.

Eagen, a Democrat, ran against Justice John C. Bell, former GOP governor, for the seat created by structured to examine the question and determine which phase is the most urgent.

"Actually, both projects should be undertaken without delay but in the absence of money to do both we'll have to come up with a Solomon-like decision as to which takes precedence over the other," President Richard Livingston commented.

New Responsibility
By allocating the first half of the Ford Foundation money and certain earmarked reserve funds, the two committees will explore the possibility of at least partially meeting the x-ray and dispensary requirements. Whether such procedure will defer start of the second patient wing is a matter that will depend on the ability to raise money.

The death of Justice Marion D. Patterson in January 1950.

Dates Involved
Eagen took the position he should have been elected automatically since Chief Justice George W. Maxey died in March 1950, creating a second vacancy. As it turned out, a third justice—William B. Linn—also died in June of that year.

The Supreme Court, however, based its decision against Eagen on a ruling that if a vacancy occurred prior to the final date to file nomination petitions for the primary election, then the vacancy could not be filled until the following year.

Supreme Court judges were later reported to have recommended that the law be changed to cover a recurrence of such situations. This was done by the 1953 Legislature.

Curious Sidelight
The 1953 law provides that if a vacancy occurs after the filing deadline for a primary and prior to three months before the general election, the state political committees each would select a candidate.

"But since the death of Justice Stearns—even though it occurred after the deadline for filing in this year's primary—came during a year when another vacancy (the expiration of the term of Chief Justice Stern) is occurring, then one is elected from each party," Donnelly said.

A curious sidelight is that Chief Justice Stern was raised to the bench in 1935 under circumstances similar to those this year.

Stern, a Republican, and the late Justice H. Edgar Barnes, a Democrat, were elected automatically because two vacancies occurred that year.

In this connection, President Livingston said:

"The important matter of adequate hospital facilities is the responsibility of every citizen, every business, every industry, every profession and every organization in Adams County and the adjacent Maryland area served by the hospital. There is no question of the need for more in-patient and out-patient facilities. No government funds will be available in Pennsylvania for the next two years as all Hill-Burton funds will go for state hospitals during that time. That leaves it right up to the people of Adams County and we are going to have to emphasize the need for regular giving to the hospital in substantial sums if the needs of the county are to be met."

The problem is not peculiar to Adams County for hospitals in all neighboring communities are confronted with the same crowded conditions and the need for more building and service facilities.

Shortage Is General
"The shortage of hospital facilities is general and all hospitals are doing exactly as we are compelled to do—periodically restricting admissions to emergency cases. Any hopes we had that our modest program could be spread over five years are completely dissipated by present demands. We cannot look to neighboring hospitals to help in meeting these requirements, for they are confronted with the same crowded conditions we are and have the same need for early expansion," he concluded.

In their study of the most urgent needs, the executive and building committees of the hospital will include fund raising plans. It is certain that a vigorous campaign will have to be instituted this summer.

CHILDREN ARE BAPTIZED
The following infants were baptized in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, by the pastor, the Rev. Stanley B. Jennings, at a special service Palm Sunday afternoon: Steven Hamilton Slick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Slick; Mark David Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. ## MECO GIVEN TWO AWARDS

"Outstanding sales promotional activity" by the Metropolitan Company in cooperation with local appliance dealers was recognized at the 22nd annual sales conference of the Edison Electric Institute in Chicago today when the local utility was presented the George A. Hughes and the George Westinghouse awards.

The Hughes award, which was originated 22 years ago to encourage and promote all-electric living, was presented to MECO for "pioneering greater acceptance and appreciation of the matchless comfort and convenience enjoyed by the public through electric cooking." MECO's "Electric Range Spectacular" of last spring was chosen as the best conducted by any utility in the country serving less than 250,000 customers.

Offered to electric utility operating companies "to recognize and stimulate outstanding performances in the promotion of electric laundry equipment," the Westinghouse Award likewise was competed for by all of the nation's leading utilities. MECO won second place in this competition for its "Dryer Buyer Days Campaign" of last fall.

The trophy and plaque were presented by George W. Ousler, chairman of the E.E.I. Awards Committee, to Robert W. Smith, MECO's residential and farm sales manager. In accepting the awards, Smith paid "tribute to appliance dealers in the community who, by cooperating in the extensive sales campaigns sponsored by the utility, set a record in sales of electric ranges and clothes dryers."

DEADLINE NEAR FOR SHEEPMEN

Adams County sheep growers were reminded today they must have their applications in the mail before May 1 if they wish to obtain incentive payments for wool and lambs or yearlings they may have sold for slaughter during the year.

Glenn Miller, office manager for the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said wool sales made after March 31, 1955, and before April 1, 1956, are eligible for payment provided the application for payment with the necessary supporting information is in the mail before May 1.

Wool growers are urged to be especially careful about providing the required sales record when submitting applications. The sales record for shorn wool must show the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, the name and address of the producer, the net weight of the wool sold and net proceeds to the producer after normal deductions. Those who market lambs and also certify that the animals were yearlings for slaughter must provide a bill of sale with the name and address of the slaughterer, the date of the sale, the name and address of the seller and the number, description and net live weight of the animals sold. They must also certify that the animals were purchased for slaughter and whether they had or had not been shorn at the time of the sale. 30-day ownership of the animals is required to be eligible for payment.

13 House Members To Retire; Others Seeking New Offices

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG — Thirteen members of the House of Representatives, with an average of more than 10 years service each, are retiring at the end of the current session.

In addition six more members of the House, all Republicans, are seeking other elective posts in the April 24 primary. Another member, Rep. Ziegler (R-Dauphin), is not seeking reelection because he was elected mayor of Harrisburg last November.

Petitions filed with the Elections Bureau before the primary show that 187 House members are running for re-election. That means at least 23 new members will be nominated and elected to the 210-member lower house.

Have No Opposition

Six men—all but one presently serving—face no opposition at all in next month's balloting. That means the write-in winner of the opposing party at the primary will be the only opposition in November.

For the first time in his lengthy career Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) has been nominated without opposition in Cambria County's first district. Other candidates without an opponent on either party ticket in the primary are Reps. Stroup (R-Berford) Renwick (D-Elk), Pursley (R-Union), and Guss (D-Juniata).

Alone In Primary

In addition Arthur S. Pantall, a West Middlesex mill worker, is alone in the primary for the seat representing the Second District of Mercer County.

House Republican leader Smith from Philadelphia, is his party's candidate for nomination as auditor general of Pennsylvania. His running mate, for treasurer, is Rep. Kent (R-Crawford).

The one lawmaker running for Congress is Rep. Waterhouse (R-Erie), who seeks the seat held by U. S. Rep. Carroll D. Kearns, Farrell Republican. Three Republican state representatives are seeking nomination to run for the state Senate. Two

CONGRESS OFF TODAY ON LONG EASTER HOLIDAY

WASHINGTON — Congress was off on a 10-day Easter holiday today.

It had little major legislation to show for three months of sessions this year and plenty to do when it returns April 9.

Ahead are such potentially explosive issues as social security, foreign aid, education, highway, housing and possibly civil rights and tax reduction legislation.

First And Last

This recess is the first and probably will be the last long holiday for the legislators, most of whom are anxious to get home early in the summer for political campaigning.

Most of the legislation since the session started Jan. 3 has taken place in the House. The Senate, while in session longer, has spent much of its time on a limited number of subjects.

It spent a month debating a bill to exempt natural gas producers from direct federal controls, only to have the measure vetoed by President Eisenhower.

Months On Farm Bill

The Senate took the best part of another month debating the farm bill. It passed a measure which a Senate-House committee is rewriting. There have been GOP predictions that it too will draw a veto.

The House had acted last year on both farm and natural gas legislation.

Another week of the Senate's time was consumed by discussion of proposed changes in the electoral college system, after which the whole issue was sent back to committee for more study.

The House, meanwhile, passed six annual appropriation bills, one of which has cleared the Senate, and an assortment of miscellaneous measures, some of which still require Senate action.

The official congressional calendars list only two "major bills" years ago four members of the House won election to the upper chamber.

This year Reps. Kromer (R-Jefferson), Ehrgood (R-Lebanon) and Stevenson (R-Butler) are attempting to make the switch. One House member, Rep. Toll (D-Phila.), filed for nomination for Congress but later withdrew. He is still seeking re-election.

Rep. Sarrof (D-Allegheny), chairman of the tax writing Ways and Means Committee, is filed for re-election but he is due to be the Democratic organization's candidate in the special election to fill a vacancy in the State Senate. The vacancy was created by the special election of former Sen. Holland to Congress.

There are presently three vacancies in the House. One—Rep. Spencer (R-Lackawanna)—was caused by death and two others—Reps. Hamilton (R-Phila.) and Kubacki (D-Berks)—resigned last year after being elected city councilmen in Philadelphia and Reading.

On The U. S. Political Front

PHILADELPHIA — Adlai Stevenson's efforts to be the 1956 Democratic presidential nominee had the support today of a majority of Pennsylvania's delegates-at-large to the party's national convention—but there was a big bloc that declined to declare for any candidate.

On the Republican side Dwight D. Eisenhower appeared to be the unanimous choice of the GOP at-large delegates—9 of the 10 reached told the Associated Press they would support the President for reelection.

The Democrats have 28 delegates-at-large, headed by Gov. Leader who has announced he is for Stevenson. All told, 15 Democrats support the 1952 party standard-bearer, one is for Gov. Averill Harriman of New York, 10 have not made up their minds and two others couldn't be reached for comment.

Have Half Votes

Democratic delegates have a half vote each, the Republicans a full vote.

The AP survey precedes the April 24 primary which features the names of Eisenhower and Stevenson on their party's respective presidential preferential ballot. Voters, however, can write in names of other candidates.

At the primary, too, voters will elect 60 Republican and 120 Democratic as district delegates to the national conventions.

While the Republican at-large as having cleared both the Senate and the House this year. One would extend existing corporate and excise tax rates and the other would exempt farm-use vehicles from payment of federal gasoline and oil taxes. Eisenhower has not yet acted on either, but is expected to sign both. He recommended them.

SEEK LAST BODY IN BLAST RUINS IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA — Men and machines bored deeper today into the still smoking ruins of a big granary in search for the last of three who perished in the city's worst explosion.

Beyond the loss of life, the cost was reckoned in injuries inflicted on between 85 and 100 persons; in property damage estimated by some as much as 3½ million dollars; in dislocations that in some instances will last for weeks.

Rescue squads yesterday recovered the bodies of men identified delegates all favored Eisenhower for a second term, they were not unanimous for Richard Nixon again as vice president. Six favored Nixon and three reserved decision. The 10th delegate, Joseph N. Pew, Jr., Philadelphia oilman, was out of town on vacation.

The Democrats expressed no choice for vice president.

fied, the first with assurance and the other tentatively, as Arthur Harrell, 35, Vineland, N.J., and Vyrion Whilden, 31, Dorchester, N.J.

Both were truck drivers. They were waiting in the office of the Tidewater Mill and Elevator Co. in the busy 30th and Market Street section when the blast occurred Wednesday night.

Vast Salvage Job

Still listed as missing and presumed to be dead was Edward Johnson, 39-year-old Philadelphia laborer employed by Tidewater.

More than 30 hours after the explosion and raging fire destroyed the granary and wrought damage over a 10-block area, firemen continued to play their hose streams over the rubble.

A vast salvage job got under way. In glass replacement alone the extent of the work was staggering, and before the glaziers could take over much temporary boarding up had to be done, against the chill wet weather and the forays of looters.

Fire Marshal William J. Eckles said the main cause of the explosion lay in a concentration of grain dust, but added, "Something has to ignite it as a rule." So far, it was reported, that "something" has not been determined.

Nehru Sees Danger In Western Pacts

NEW DELHI — Indian Prime Minister Nehru delivered another bitter indictment of the Baghdad and SEATO pacts Thursday, charging they "pushed the world in the wrong direction" and "blocked their right tendencies" working for peace.

In one of his sharpest attacks on Western military alliances, Nehru told Parliament they represent "a wrong, dangerous and harmful approach" to international problems.

Approval of Nehru's foreign policy was voted after his speech when the House accepted his budget for the foreign ministry.

AWAIT ICELAND ELECTIONS ON OUSTER MOVE

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—The Icelandic Parliament's call for withdrawal of U.S. troops is not expected to get beyond the talking stage unless the Communists gain enough strength in parliamentary elections June 24 to back demands for further action.

Parliament approved a resolution over Conservative opposition Tuesday calling for departure of U.S. troops stationed here as an NATO force since 1951.

The demand, which would leave this strategic North Atlantic outpost undefended, aroused open concern in Washington and gleeful support in Moscow.

But informed sources here said it was all part of a political maneuver designed to cut the ground from under the Reds.

Depends On Election

They said the Farmers party and others joined the Communists in supporting the resolution in order to steal thunder from the left. The Reds reportedly hope to gain strength in the parliamentary elections with demands that foreign troops get out of Iceland.

The idea appeared to be that if the Reds did not score major gains in the election, the go-home

EVACUATE 3,600 STUDENTS AFTER BOMB THREAT

GARDEN CITY, N. Y. (AP)—Students and faculty members have been evacuated from Adelphi College following a bomb threat contained in a letter whose writer expressed hate for Negroes.

Police search of the campus and its dozen buildings turned up no indication of a bomb. Dormitories, classroom buildings and other campus structures were evacuated Wednesday and the campus was sealed off by guards as the search was made.

No Tension There
Police Chief Stephen Vandewater said he assumed the anonymous threat was a "crank scare letter."

He said the student body of 3,600 is made up of "all races, colors and creeds" and there never has been "any tension on the campus or in the surrounding community."

He said all the students and faculty members will be back for "business as usual" when the spring vacation ends April 9.

College authorities also said there had been no incident of racial discord or discrimination.

College Trustees To Check Lavalee

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—The suspension of Dr. Laurent R. Lavalee from the faculty at Dickinson College will be examined by the executive committee of the school's board of trustees April 20.

Gilbert Malcolm, assistant to the president, said Wednesday representatives of the faculty Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure would be invited to attend the closed Harrisburg session.

Lavalee was suspended by Dr. William W. Edel, president of Dickinson, last week for invoking the fifth amendment while testifying before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

He refused to answer questions on grounds his answers might tend to incriminate him.

Dr. Edel said the suspension would stand pending a hearing by the executive committee.

was contained in a special delivery letter which the president, Dr. Paul Dawson Eddy, opened at his home near the campus at 5 p.m. Wednesday.

He said the letter, threatening that "a bomb will blow up your school Wednesday," was poorly spelled. It was typed and signed "ku."

Eddy said evacuation of the college began almost immediately because there was no time to investigate and the college did not want to take any chances.

AP REPORTERS HAVE RINGSIDE SEAT AT BLAST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia bureau of the Associated Press had a big story blown its way Wednesday night.

When the granary of the Tidewater Mill & Elevator Co. went up in a terrific blast, the explosion rocked the Philadelphia Bulletin's building, where the AP maintains a fourth-floor office.

The AP editors, operators and wirephoto personnel on duty were well aware of the news happening so close. Several were jolted from their chairs. Others were knocked from their feet.

Part of the corridor ceiling fell outside the AP office door and in a matter of seconds the office was filled with acrid smoke.

Night editor Russell Landstrom began pounding his typewriter with the running account of the explosion — with newsmen Robert Sundry and William Alexander providing material from their quickly assumed vantage points at the scene across the street.

John Kuhl, a teletype operator on lunch, was jarred by the blast as he prepared to leave a restaurant in the same block as the demolished building. He hurried back to help transmit the news of the blast.

Photographer Warren Winterbottom, knocked back against a wall, recovered his balance and joined Sundry and Alexander at the scene.

Smoke or no, the story was rolling.

Create State Bureau To Buy Pa. Autos

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state has created an automotive bureau to handle its new 2½ million dollar-a-year car buying and selling program.

Secretary of Property and Supplies John S. Rice named John D. Adams, 44, Harrisburg, to head the bureau at $8,350 a year.

The bureau will supervise the annual sale and purchase of 3,600 state vehicles.

A sales manager and two field salesmen will work in the new bureau approved recently by the governor's executive board.

Storms Continue To Assault Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Violent wind and snow storms, which struck crippling blows Wednesday to northern sections of the Midwest, continued their assault today.

Many communities in four states—the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin—were virtually paralyzed by the vigorous early spring storms.

The dust storms which smothered crops in the Great Plains abated.

Stormy weather also hit eastern and southern sections of the country in the form of rain or hail and strong winds.

SAYS SPENDING IS "INVESTING" AT PENN STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader believes that money the state gives Pennsylvania State University "is not necessarily spending but investing."

The governor brought up the subject of the university appropriation yesterday at a news conference for weekly newspaper editors.

"The state puts 24 million dollars in Penn State for two years," he said. "That is a lot of money and it takes some time to decide to do it."

"But this money helps turn out the engineers we need and people who attract industry to the state. It was no accident the Curtiss Wright people located their new plant within 35 miles of State College."

"It isn't necessarily spending money but investing it because it brings us a return," the governor added.

He had been asked to express his opinion on "when will the day come that the state begins to live within its means."

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Motor Vehicle Director Frederick J. Gasert Jr. Thursday refused to extend the period for renewing 1955 automobile registrations, saying he thought all New Jersey car owners could obtain them by the Saturday midnight deadline.

USIA RAISES QUESTIONS ON STALIN ERA

VIENNA (AP)—The United States Information Agency is waging a pamphlet and leaflet campaign to fix partial guilt for the Stalin era purges on the Soviet Union's present leaders.

The agency has provided the U.S. embassies and information offices abroad with material for suggested leaflets titled "Some Honest Questions."

"The collective leadership of Stalin is outspoken nowadays in its bitter criticism of Stalin and the crime of the Stalin regime," the suggested text begins. Then it adds:

Khrushchev Won Honor
"But where were the indignant voices of Khrushchev, Malenkov and Bulganin in those last three decades? Where were the outraged cries against the cold-blooded purges? Fair-minded people are asking these questions. They have a right to know. They have a right to look at the record."

Of Soviet Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev, the message says: "As first secretary of the Ukrainian Communist party Khrushchev, in his own words, directed a purge of the 'enemies of the people' . . . For his efforts Stalin awarded Khrushchev the order of a Red Banner of Labor."

Similar charges of complicity, or submissive silence, are made against Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and former Premier Georgi Malenkov.

70 Manufacturers Question Constitutionality Of State Unemployment Measure

By BOB HOLTEN
HARRISBURG (P) — Seventy Pennsylvania manufacturers—including some of the largest in the commonwealth—have formally challenged the constitutionality of the State Unemployment Compensation Law.

The group action was taken in Dauphin County Court in a suit attacking a state ruling that the recent Westinghouse Electric Corp. labor dispute was a lockout—this making some 23,000 workers eligible for jobless pay benefits.

The petition asked the court to issue an injunction to stop the state from making any plans to pay benefits until after the ruling is tested in the State Superior Court.

Contest Lockout Ruling
Those filing the petition, including the State Chamber of Commerce, also contested the lockout ruling by the Labor and Industry Department as contrary to the facts.

Various organizations have estimated the possible cost of paying the benefits at between 4 and 9½ million dollars from the state unemployment compensation fund.

"We petition the court to make a section of the act unconstitutional because it directs payments of jobless benefits notwithstanding an appeal before the State Superior Court," the appeal stated.

The labor dispute ended last week after the electric company workers had been idled 156 days. The suit contends the state ruling would have the effect of using the fund as a means of "subsidizing employees engaged in labor disputes."

The applications of some 23,000 employees, separated into 27 test cases, now are being studied by referees of the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review.

The firms maintain that the law violates the state constitution in directing that no appeal against payments may be made to the State Superior Court until after a final decision has been made by the Board of Review.

Can't Be Recovered
"Any payments of compensation so made cannot be recovered although the superior court may subsequently rule the payments should not have been made," the petition stated.

Last December Gov. Leader asked the International Union of Electrical Workers and Westinghouse to "submit to final and binding arbitration."

The company said its contract with the union contained no provision for compulsory arbitration.

Would Encourage Strikes
Last February, John R. Torquato, labor and industry secretary, ruled the dispute a lockout and made the idled workers eligible for jobless benefits covering an eight-

2 SURVIVORS OF EXPLOSION CALL ESCAPE MIRACLE

PHILADELPHIA (P) — Two of the men who crawled out of the debris left in the wake of Wednesday night's granary explosion recounted from the hospital beds the "miracle" of their escape.

Samuel Purdy, 41, night superintendent of the Tidewater Mill and Elevator Co., survived despite the fact that he believes he was working in the very heart of the blast area.

"There were five employees including myself in the building at the time," he said.

"Wade Cheeseman was weighing grain in the tower on the 6th floor; Gil Trout was unloading grain out near the Market St. entrance, and Charles Winslow and Ed Johnson, a new employee, were in 21 bin.

"I was lighting the pilot for the grain dryer on the first floor. There are two pilots—one was OK, but the other wouldn't work. So I took the cover off—it's a gas and electric hookup—and tried to make contact with my fingers.

In Middle Of Blast
"Seconds later, the explosion occurred. I seemed to be right in the middle of it. All the lights went out. I threw off all the switches I could but I couldn't get to the main—it was too far away.

"Then, I remembered I had a flashlight in my back pocket. I made my way to 21 bin and gave Winslow my flash. The three of us began climbing through the bins week period.

"If this ruling stands, the governor then would have the arbitrary power to coerce a Pennsylvania employer to submit to compulsory arbitration in a labor dispute although it is a violation of the State Labor Mediation Act and a violation of the Constitution," the appeal asserted.

"This ruling, if it stands, would have the effect of fostering and encouraging strikes and the prolongation thereof," the group said.

More Salk Vaccine Is Made Available

HARRISBURG (P) — Over 52,000 more doses of Salk antipolio vaccine are ready for use today in inoculating Pennsylvania children.

But in announcing receipt of the serum Wednesday, Secretary of Health Mattison, said:

"Even with this latest allocation, Pennsylvania has not yet received enough vaccine to supply one dose for every child under 15, the priority group."

and out through an opening that was practically demolished.

"I looked back and noticed that Johnson was missing. I went back part ways and yelled for about three minutes. I couldn't climb in any further because my hands were burned."

Purdy, who suffered head injuries and extensive burns of the forearms, is recuperating in the same room at Philadelphia General Hospital with James B. Pierce, 26, Millville, N. J., one of three drivers for a grain hauling firm who were in the ground floor office at the front of the building when the blast occurred. The other two men and Johnson are missing and feared dead under the mountain of debris.

"There was a sudden flash and I was blown under the desk," Pierce recalled, adding that he was saved by this "sheer accident of fate." "It sounded like two locomotives striking each other. The blast blew my shoes off. Only the desk saved me as the entire office collapsed around us."

"I crawled through the debris calling to the other guys. There was no answer. It was pitch black. I was scared. I got the hell out of there."

Pierce also suffered lacerations and burns. Both men are listed in fair condition.

Police identified the missing drivers as Byron Weidman and Arthur Harold, both also of the Millville area.

They were employed by John Reginald of Millville. A fourth man, Albert Washington, 36, also of Millville, who was helping load a truck when the explosion struck, was reported in critical condition at Hahnemann Hospital.

Of the other granary employees, Gilpin Trout, 45, who also escaped in some fashion from the wrecked building, was treated for shock and detained at Presbyterian Hospital.

Winslow, 45, was treated for cuts. And the fifth man, Cheeseman, 27, of Palmyra, N. J., who was weighing grain high in the rear elevator shaft, escaped.

Peace Mission To Palestine Discussed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (P) — Some U.N. delegates predicted today the U.N. Security Council would adopt a U.S. resolution to send Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld on a Palestine peace mission. Opinions differed on how soon the council might act.

One council member told a reporter the vote would come Tuesday at the next council meeting on the American proposal. Another said further meetings would be necessary for full U.S. answers to Arab—and possibly Israeli—questions on the aim and scope of the mission.

The forecasts of final approval were based on speeches to the council Wednesday by Egypt and Syria. These generally were considered moderate in tone.

RED ARMS PLAN IS LIKE IKE'S

LONDON (P) — An American source says Russia's latest proposal for world disarmament includes the basic concept of President Eisenhower's aerial inspection plan.

Details of the Soviet plan, made at the five-power U.N. Disarmament subcommittee meeting here, were not disclosed. Informants said, however, they were qualified and incomplete.

In the American view, the informants added, the Soviet plan "approaches only part of the problem." But diplomatic sources said they believed the new Soviet proposals represent something more than propaganda and move nearer to the Western position on inspection.

The U.S. delegation immediately forwarded the new Soviet suggestions to Washington for study. Under the Eisenhower "Open Skies" plan, the big powers would have the right to fly over each other's territory to see that disarmament pledges were not being broken and that forces were not being massed for a surprise attack.

Informants said the Russian plan emphasized cuts in conventional arms and made only general references to nuclear weapons.

The secretary said the third release of vaccine to Pennsylvania this month brings to 285,167 the total number of doses received by Pennsylvania during March.

There are more than 2,666,942 children under 15 in Pennsylvania and 338,634 have received two doses of vaccine under the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis program.

For the 2,328,308 other children under 15, however, Dr. Mattison said the state has received only 1,528,537 doses.

16-YEAR-OLD GIRL ABDUCTED

SHADYSIDE (P) — A 16-year-old Shadyside girl Thursday told police of a terror-filled four-hour trip with a man who abducted her at gunpoint.

Nola Ray, en route from school Wednesday, said a well-dressed man in a new car stopped and asked for a street location.

She said he then leaned over, poked a gun through his open window and ordered:

"Get in the car. I mean business."

The girl said she was released four hours later in Coal Center, near Charleroi.

Did Not Harm

Nola told police the man didn't harm her but waved a revolver in her face several times and laughed continually.

Upon her release she ran to a nearby home and telephoned her mother.

She was treated later at Shadyside Hospital for "extreme nervousness."

The girl said they drove around the Shadyside district for several minutes and then headed south. She said the man wore horn-

So you think things are messed up out there on the highway? Well, just wait another ten years!

The National Safety Council has taken a peep into the future and come up with these disconcerting figures:

By 1966, an endless swarm of 82,000,000 motor vehicles will jam the streets and highways — 20,000,000 more than are on the road now.

They will be piloted at various times by 90,000,000 drivers.

They will travel approximately 825 billion miles a year.

The traffic toll that year will be around $3,000 — unless some genius manages to pull down the prevailing death rate by getting to those 90,000,000 drivers with a safety sales talk that is more convincing than anything thought up so far.

Faced with this foreboding future, the Council announced today a specific traffic safety program designed not only to hold down the traffic toll, but to expedite the flow of traffic. Safety authorities agree the two problems are inseparably interwoven.

The Council emphasized that while it accepts its responsibility, it cannot do the job alone, and that the help of every person who drives, rides or walks is essential.

Here is the Council's plan for cutting the toll and congestion of future traffic — based on proven techniques of engineering, education and enforcement:

1. Convince the public that the only real answer to the traffic problem is for every individual not only to drive and walk sensibly and safely himself, but to join actively in an organized community and national effort to see that others do the same. If this means rougher, tougher traffic law enforcement — as it will in many places — demand, support and accept it!

2. Give every community the facts on how its traffic safety program stacks up against recognized standards — and help it bring itself up to or above par. The Council provides the way to do this through its Annual Inventory of Traffic Safety Activities, now being used by 46 states and by 1,140 cities.

3. Build as many miles of safe, modern accident-resistant highways as possible — and as fast as possible. The way they are financed, say the Council, isn't half as important as the fact that unless they're built, this country will have outsmarted itself traffic-wise.

4. Along with building new and better and safer roads, use every modern technique of traffic engineering and law enforcement to make existing highways as foolproof and safe as possible.

5. Cut through red tape, apathy and legislative inertia to obtain uniform vehicle laws and do what common sense tells the nation it should have done long ago — give the driver a set of simple understandable traffic rules and laws that he can follow from coast to coast — and that he can be sure will be enforced.

6. Make driver education — in class and behind the wheel — a required course for every student of driving age in every high school.

7. Make it so tough to get a driver's license that only a person who is physically, mentally and emotionally qualified to drive in modern traffic can get one.

8. Take the license away from any driver as soon as he demonstrates inability to drive as a decent, sensible citizen should drive.

9. Back traffic courts to the limit in showing errant drivers and walkers that it just isn't smart or healthy to behave selfishly or dangerously in traffic.

10. Encourage constant improvement in automobile design to make it easier and easier to drive safely.

The traffic situation, the Council emphasized, can be improved in direct ratio to public acceptance of those 10 objectives. But it will require organized efforts, dedicated leadership by influential persons in public and private capacity, and a willingness to work and pay for safety and better traffic facilities. The Council pointed out that safety, like everything else worthwhile, costs money, time and effort.

And what will happen by 1966 if Americans team up in a real and continuing traffic improvement program? "You'll get where you're going a lot easier and sooner," promised the Council. "And what's more, the traffic toll will come down by half!"

9 UNION MEN ACQUITTED OF RIOT CHARGES

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Nine members of a union striking the Westinghouse Electric Corp. plant in Lester were found innocent last night of riot charges stemming from a picket line incident last December.

The finding by a Delaware County Court jury paved the way for a resumption of negotiations to end the last strike in the vast Westinghouse system.

Among the nine freed by Judge John V. Diggins after the jury returned its verdict were six members of the negotiating committee for Local 107 of the United Electrical Workers (Ind.)

May Meet Monday Although eight other UE locals last week had agreed to a five year pact with the company, the Lester unit refused to return to work pending settlement of issues pertaining only to that plant.

And it said it could not negotiate on those issues unless its full committee was available. In anticipation of the trial's end, the union yesterday offered to meet next Monday with Westinghouse to iron out the remaining dispute. Westinghouse indicated it would accept.

Deliberated Six Hours The nine went on trial Monday on riot charges. They were accused of attacking a truck driver who tried to enter the Lester plant last Dec. 8. The jury deliberated six hours before returning its verdict.

Local 107, with a membership of some 6,000 at the Lester plant, said that a Westinghouse proposal to revise pay rates would have meant a 20 per cent slash in income for its members. The company said the proposed revision would result in "some" pay cut for the workers. The local says they averaged $2.50 an hour before the strike began last October.

Bank Hauled Cash With Store's Cart

COLUMBIA, Pa. (AP)—The Columbia Trust Co. has completed the largest cash transaction in its history.

It started last November when renovations began at the bank and the firm carried on its daily business in an old restaurant.

Every day bundles of money would be taken from the bank vault, put in a supermarket pushcart and wheeled to the restaurant. At the end of the day the money would be wheeled back to the bank vault.

An official estimated that four million dollars was handled that way.

Police Upset Plans For "Tasty" Stew

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Two men were hauled into the Harrisburg police station and booked on charges of disturbing the peace. Sgt. Paul Townsend ordered the pair to empty their pockets. Results: two ears of corn (still in the husk); three oranges; a handful of string beans; 2½ wrinkled hot dogs; a half loaf of stale bread and one brown banana.

"We were going to make a bit of tasty stew," one of the men explained.

WINS FIRST PLACE FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (AP)—Barbara Kimple, student at Pennsylvania State University, yesterday placed first in the declamation category of eight finals events in the Grand National Forensics Tournament being held at Mary Washington College.

The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Clarence Wilson. Rodney Harbaugh spent the weekend at the home of friends in Philadelphia.

LEADER SIGNS SEVERAL BILLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader Thursday signed into law a measure establishing a program of state instruction in the public schools for handicapped children.

The new law makes state reimbursement available for school districts establishing special classes for handicapped children.

At the same time Leader signed an amendment to the state's new fair employment practices law which allows old-age retirement procedures in Pennsylvania firms to continue unchanged.

Other new laws:

Raise the pay of assessors in fourth to eighth class counties from $10 to $12 a day.

Legally change the name of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, to Veterans Day in Pennsylvania.

Authorize the Forests and Waters Department to exchange an acre of land in Union Twp., Butler County, for another acre owned by A. Rush Burkett to employ administration of Blue Knob State Park.

Rich Sword Collection May Have Widespread Exhibition

By ROBERT D. CLARK

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (AP)—You may have an opportunity to inspect historic American swords of every pattern, some the personal sidearms of dashing martial figures.

The noted Philip Medius collection has been acquired by a youthful antiquities dealer who hopes to foster widespread exhibits of the romantic relics.

Norm Playdeman, 27, has more than 800 of them; some richly chased and jeweled by master craftsmen, some crudely forged in the heat and haste of freedom's urgency by country blacksmiths.

Plans Book On Collection

He's making notes for a book planned as the first comprehensive work on the collection widely recognized as largest and best in American swordcraft.

Medius, a New York City connoisseur, died in 1954, an acknowledged expert in his field.

Playdeman wants to loan museums and other responsible exhibitors choice displays. He's confident that most modern Americans have never seen their like.

"Some of these presentation swords," he says, "belong in the realm of jewelry instead of weapons."

Sword Of Gen. Thomas

"Take this sword, for instance, of Maj. Gen. George H. Thomas, who went into history books as the 'Rock of Chickamauga.' New York jewelers turned out this fancy saber. It was presented to Thomas for his leadership in the 1862 battle of Mill Springs, Ky." The sword has a gold-decorated blade, a hilt with a silver knight as main motif and a reclining woman placing a wreath on the knight's brow. The ball pommel is set with stars and amethysts, and the cross-guard is a large shield displaying an eagle over diamond-studded initials "GHT."

Has Burnside's Sword

Contrasting with the jeweled ceremonial sword is one documented as the working sword of famous Civil War Maj. Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside.

Some of the rough-and-ready swordsmen were turned out for soldiers of the American Revolution and for Confederate forces of nearly a century later.

Ernie White, new manager of the Nashville Voils of the Southern Assn., is putting in his 20th season in organized baseball. Only one of his teams has finished in the second division.

Dickinson Named Head Of KMB Group

Harvey Dickinson was named chairman of the "Keep Maryland Beautiful" committee at a meeting of the Taneytown Chamber of Commerce Monday night. John Clark, Maryland state chairman of the "Keep Maryland Beautiful" campaign, presented a talk and slides on the subject.

The industrial committee of the chamber reported several ads of an industrial nature inserted in business publications. The chamber renewed its annual membership in the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Taneytown business places closed as usual from 1 to 3 o'clock Good Friday afternoon. Members of the 4-H Club and the Farm Bureau, along with individuals and chamber members attended the meeting presided over by president Merwyn Fuss. The group is planning to view a film presented by E. W. Dunbar and produced for the Aluminum Company of America.
